

SMW - Segmented measuring roll

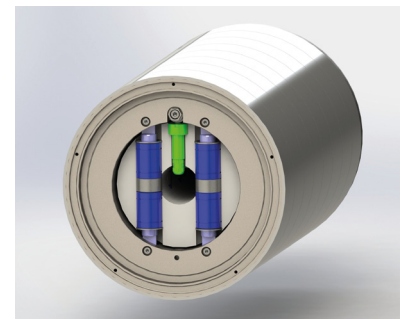

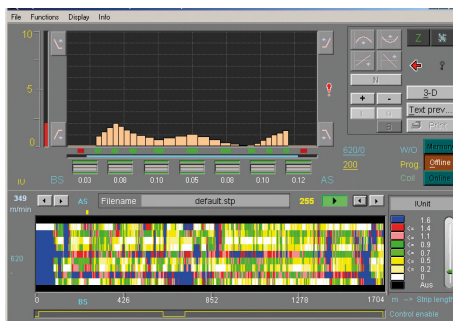

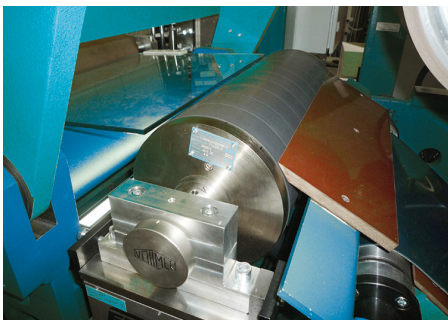

Web tension measurement with individual roller elements

- Measuring roll with several independent force measuring segments
- Detection of the tension distribution over the entire width of the web or over the individual panels at a slitter
- Configuration of the measuring roll according to customer requirements
- Monitoring and visualization of the web tension profile or direct output of the signals for processing in the PLC

NEW

Application wherever the web tension profile determines the quality

Images courtesy of Friedrich Vollmer Feingerätebau GmbH

Not only measuring, but also controlling?

Due to our controlling competence, we see many possibilities - talk to us and let us find solutions together.